ABOUT TADOBA

The Tadoba Andhari Tiger Reserve is a wildlife sanctuary in Chandrapur district of Maharashtra. It is Maharashtra's oldest and largest national park. Created in 1955, the reserve includes the Tadoba National Park and the Andhari Wildlife Sanctuary. "Tadoba" is taken from the name of the god "Tadoba" or "Taru", worshipped by the tribes who live in the dense forests of the Tadoba and Andhari region, while "Andhari" refers to the Andhari River that meanders through the forest.

The Reserve contains some of the best of forest tracks and is endowed with rich biodiversity. Its area consists of 625.4 sq km.

Tadoba has never failed enthusiasts in terms of tiger sightings.
